ORPHANS' FESTIVAL.—The Committee of

ROYAL CANADIAN ORPHANS' FESTIVAL.

In this, the first year of the new festival will take place at the Academy of Music, on THURSDAY, next Inst.

The Asylums are overcrowded, and many applications are made daily by those who are for the children of others who have no money to support them.

We present the sworn statement of the Comptroller of this State, one THOUSAND and EIGHTY-THREE CHILDREN

in the Asylums, and scores are now knocking at the doors

BEFORE ADMISSION. There has never been a time when the orphan's appeal should be more urgent.

For the benefit of the Asylums, under the direction of N. B. CLARK, Esq., who has kindly volunteered his services. Visitors to the Festival are particularly cautioned against purchasing tickets from any one outside of the building, as many persons have been known to have paid double the price to passers-by money in making change. Article from the several places of amusement, with the kind consent of the managers, will appear on the program.

Writings (50 cents each) may be procured from any of the Booksellers, as the principal Catholic booksellers, from the agents of the churches, and at the Academy of Music.

Enclosure stamp will not be received.

No postponement on account of the weather.

M. J. O'DONNELL, Secretary.
